Notes: "A" Thomas Rogers, "The pilgrim", came on the Mayflower. 1620, and died that winter. His son John came later and settled at Duxbury. They are said to have been lineal descendants of John Rogers – the first English martyr, who was burned at the stake at Smithfield in 1555. "B" Gov. Edward Winslow came on the Mayflower. 1620. as also did Susanna White and her husband, both were widowed that winter, and on May 12, 1621 they were married by Gov. Bradford. This was the first marriage of white persons in New England. Gov. Winslow was one of the most prominent of the pilgrims. He was Assistant Governor 1624 to 1647, except 1633, 1636 and 1644 when he was governor. He was a trusted friend of Oliver Cromwell and died at sea while on a mission for him to The West Indies, May, 6, 1655. "C" Phebe Hicks, wife of George Watson, was daughter of Robert Hicks, who came in the "Fortune" to Plymouth in 1621. He was a lineal descendant of Sir Eli. Hicks, who was Knighted by Edward the Black Prince at the battle of Poicters, Sept. 19, 1336. "C" Note 3 separate lines of descent from the "Widow", and the two each from Hugh Churchman, Thomas Rogers, and John Richmond.

EXPLANATION

Each vertical column contains one generation: The earliest generation being at the left. Each family is shown as nearly as possible on a horizontal line

William Gooding 2nd, was a Revolutionary Soldier. In 1788 he with his brothers James and Elnathan emigrated from Dighton Mass. to Ontario Co. N.Y. Their bro: George, soon followed. The family has since spread all over the West. I show two coats of arms, both claimed by the Gooding family.
